GOVERNMENT FACULTY AND THEIR ADVISING FIELDS
~ 2013-2014 ~

JOSEPH BAFUMI (American Government)
Associate Professor of Government
646-3337, Room 225 Silsby
Electoral behavior; Campaigns and elections; Ideology; Public opinion; The Supreme Court; Public policy; Political methodology

LISA BALDEZ (Comparative Politics)
Associate Professor of Government and LALACS
646-0762, Room 302 Silsby
Latin American politics; Revolution and protest in Latin America; Women’s movements in Latin America; Gender and American politics; Gender politics in global perspective; The politics and culture of Cuba; Democracy in Chile

SONU BEDI (Political Theory/Law)
Assistant Professor of Government
646-6538, Room 202 Silsby
Law and political theory; Liberalism; Multiculturalism; Democratic theory; Jurisprudence; Constitutional law; Privacy; Identity politics; Theories of justice

DEBORAH BROOKS (American Government)
Associate Professor of Government
646-3919, Room 231 Silsby
American politics; Public opinion; Campaigns and elections; Research methodology; Voting behavior

STEPHEN BROOKS (International Relations)
Associate Professor of Government
646-2735, Room 205 Silsby
Political economy; The globalization of production and international security; International relations theory; Multinational corporations; Regional economic integration

JOHN CAREY (Comparative Politics)
Professor of Government
John Wentworth Professor in the Social Sciences
Chair, Department of Government
646-1130, Room 218A Silsby
Comparative politics, Democratic institutions, Elections, and Latin American politics

SIMON CHAUCHARD (Comparative Politics)
Assistant Professor of Government
Comparative politics, Ethnic politics, Intergroup relations, South Asian and Indian politics, Field research methods

MICHELLE TOLMAN CLARKE (Political Theory)
Assistant Professor of Government
Co-Director Government Honors Program
646-1352, Room 210 Silsby
Early modern political thought; Classical political philosophy and political history; Republicanism, ancient and modern; Women and gender in the history of political thought; Enlightenment debates; Pluralism

LINDA FOWLER (American Politics)
Professor of Government
Frank J. Reagan '09 Chair in Policy Studies
646-0009, Room 207 Silsby
Legislative politics; Public policy; Interest groups; Participation
BRIAN GREENHILL (International Relations)
Assistant Professor of Government
646-3258, Room 223 Silsby
International relations, Human rights, International political economy, Political methodology

MICHAEL HERRON (American Government)
Professor of Government
646-2693, Room 201 Silsby
Statistical methods with a focus on econometrics and research design; Legislative politics focusing on Congress, contemporary legislative theory, comparative legislative institutions, institutional design, and Congressional elections; Political economy with a focus on game theory, business and politics

JEREMY HOROWITZ (Comparative Politics)
Assistant Professor of Government
646-9619, Room 203 Silsby
Ethnic politics, Political violence, Campaigns and voting, Development, Distributional politics, Africa, Policy evaluation

YUSAKU HORIUCHI (Comparative Politics)
Associate Professor of Government; Mitsui Chair in the Study of Japan
646-2828, Room 204 Silsby
Electoral politics, Political economy, Public opinion, Japan, Political Methodology, Statistical Methods, Research Design

DEAN LACY (American Government)
Professor of Government
646-9228, Room 302 Silsby
Electoral institutions and behavior; Public opinion; Legislatures; Political parties; The presidency; Democratic theory; Behavioral decision theory; Game theory; Survey research; Econometrics

JENNIFER LIND (International Relations)
Associate Professor of Government
646-2282, Room 203 Silsby
International relations of East Asia; Japanese politics and foreign policy; U.S. foreign policy toward East Asia; Memory and justice after war; Ethics and the use of force; International relations theory; International security; American foreign policy; Causes of war

MICHAEL MASTANDUNO (International Relations)
Nelson A. Rockefeller Professor of Government
Dean of Faculty Arts and Sciences
646-2125, Room 203 Wentworth
Political economy; American foreign policy; Economic competition among the United States, the European Community and Japan; International relations theory after the Cold War

RUSSELL MUIRHEAD (Political Theory/Law)
Robert Clements Associate Professor of Democracy and Politics
646-2548, Room 204 Silsby
Contemporary political theory; History of political thought; American political thought; Morality and politics; The problem of partisanship; Ethics and everyday life; Political concepts; Dilemmas in democratic theory

JAMES MURPHY (Political Theory/Law)
Professor of Government
646-2862, Room 206 Silsby
Ancient and medieval political philosophy; Philosophy of law; Ethics

BRENDAN NYHAN (American Government)
Assistant Professor of Government
American politics; political psychology; political communication; the presidency; social networks; survey research; experiments; research methods.
DARYL PRESS (International Relations)
Associate Professor of Government
646-1707, Room 219A Silsby; 646-2043, 146 Haldeman
International security; American foreign policy; Credibility and deterrence theory; Economic effects of wars, Military analysis; Nuclear weapons

ANNE SA’ADAH (Comparative Politics/Political Theory)
Joel Parker Professor of Law and Political Science
646-3112, Room 301 Silsby
European politics (especially France and Germany); Political development and democratization; Democratic theory; Religion and political development; Revolution, reaction, and reform

LUCAS SWAINE (Political Theory)
Associate Professor of Government
646-0765, Room 230 Silsby
Political philosophy; History of political thought; Religion and politics; Law and ethics; Comparative politics

DALE TURNER (Political Theory/Native American Studies)
Associate Professor of Government and Native American Studies
646-0766, Room 229 Silsby/646-0324, Room 202 Sherman
Social and political philosophy; Amerindian philosophy; Philosophy of law; Early modern political philosophy

BENJAMIN VALENTINO (International Relations)
Associate Professor of Government
Co-Director Government Honors Program
646-2555, Room 208 Silsby
American foreign policy; National security policy; Theories of international relations; Causes of war and peace; The nuclear age; Causes of and solutions to ethnic conflict, genocide, and mass killing

DIRK VANDEWALLE (Comparative Politics/International Relations)
Associate Professor of Government
646-2357, Room 232 Silsby
Middle East and North Africa; Comparative government and comparative economic development; Development of the Third World - Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand

WILLIAM WOHLFORTH (International Relations)
Daniel Webster Professor of Government
646-3460, Room 214 Silsby
International relations theory; International security; Foreign policy and decision-making; Russian foreign policy and international politics of Eurasia; American foreign and military policy; Cold and end of Cold War
ADVISING FIELDS OF
ADJUNCT & VISITING GOVERNMENT FACULTY,
RESEARCH SCHOLARS & FELLOWS

CAROL BOHMER (Political Theory/Law)
Visiting Associate Professor of Government
646-3469, Room 224 Silsby
Law and public policy; Gender and the law; Reproductive law and policy; Sex and the law; Immigration

RONALD SHAIKO (American Government)
Visiting Associate Professor of Government
Senior Fellow and Associate Director, The Rockefeller Center for Public Policy and the Social Sciences
646-9146, Room 204 Rockefeller
American and comparative politics; Interest groups and lobbying; Congress; Nonprofit organizations; Democratization; Social movements

CHRISTIANNE H. WOHLFORTH (Comparative Politics)
Adjunct Assistant Professor of Government
Associate Director, The John Sloan Dickey Center for International Understanding
646-4079, Room 142 Haldeman
European integration; Comparative politics; International relations

Additional information on our faculty including curriculum vitae, recent publications and research interests can be found on our webpage at http://www.dartmouth.edu/~govt/faculty/.