WEB SITES

www.sonart.org
This comprehensive site provides information about Sonia Landy Sheridan’s work, her career as an educator, and her life in the Upper Valley region of New Hampshire and Vermont. It also includes links to the work of her former students.

www.soniasheridan.com
This website provides a gallery of images by Sonia Landy Sheridan.

www.fondation-langlois.org
The Langlois Foundation aims to further human knowledge by supporting artistic, scientific and technological research. This web site brings together documents and images that recount the groundbreaking role played by Sheridan in the use of industrial photocopiers as creative tools and her contribution to the promotion of an interdisciplinary approach to the teaching of fine arts.

BOOKS

Light and Lens: Photography in the Digital Age by Robert Hirsch is an introductory college-level photography textbook that includes information on the history of photography including Sonia Landy Sheridan’s contributions. It covers basic to advanced photography techniques, challenges students to look critically at photographs, and presents approaches to writing about images.

Photographic Possibilities, Third Edition: The Expressive Use of Equipment, Ideas, Materials, and Processes by Robert Hirsch is a handbook for professional and advanced photography students on a wide range of photographic methods. It showcases the work of over 140 artists including Sonia Landy Sheridan.