Learn More!
Frank Stella

The resources listed below will bring you to sites which provide a wide range of information about Frank Stella and his long career. Information specifically about the Irregular Polygon series by Frank Stella on the web is limited and so these sites provide more general information about the artist.

WEB SITES

http://livebinders.com/play/play_or_edit/7339
This site provides a list of links to museums and other sites which offer resources about Frank Stella such as biographical information, lesson plans and images of the artist’s work.

http://www.mathleague.com/help/geometry/polygons.htm
This math web site provides images and definitions for a glossary of geometric shapes such as polygons, which are used in Frank Stella’s work.