Learn More!

Tradition and Transformation: Twentieth-Century Inuit Art from the Collection of the Hood Museum of Art

This list of resources may be used to help you and your students learn more about looking at and understanding the works in this exhibition.

Websites:

The following websites provide information on Inuit art and culture.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o54y4S-2NHc

http://www.inuitartalive.ca/

https://www.isuma.tv/en/inuit-culture-education/teacher-resources

These sites provide information on Inuit printmaking.

http://www.historymuseum.ca/capedorsetprints/introduction/

http://www.ngcmagazine.ca/correspondents/japan-s-influence-on-inuit-printmakers-the-untold-story

The following website focuses on small-scale sculpture and models from the Canadian arctic.

http://www.historymuseum.ca/cmc/exhibitions/tresors/art_inuit/inart16e.shtml
The Spirit Wrestler Gallery’s website is a great resource for information about specific Canadian Inuit artists.

http://www.spiritwrestler.com

These websites contain information about celebrated Canadian Inuit artist Kenojuak Ashevak.

https://museumofinuitartblog.wordpress.com/?s=kenojuak+ashevak&submit=Search

http://www.inuitartalive.ca/index_e.php?p=133

These blogs from the Museum of Inuit Art contain information about the artist Karoo Ashevak and whalebone carving.

https://museumofinuitartblog.wordpress.com/2012/04/13/lets-talk-about-whalebone/

Book:

Film:

This website provides access to and information about more than 100 documentaries and animated films created by and about Inuit peoples.

https://www.nfb.ca/playlist/unikkausivut-sharing-our-stories/